2024 CORVETTE E-RAY!

One like none

Over 70 years and eight generations, Corvette has been innovated upon time and time again. And now, it's been electrified for the first time with an e-AWD system that works in tandem with its LT2 V8 engine to give it the fastest 0 to 60 time ever for this legendary nameplate. But this latest Corvette isn't made simply for performance. With standard all-season tires and Magnetic Selective Ride Control,[™] it's made for all-season touring too.

PERFORMANCE- Conquer the conditions

Designed for year-round performance, E-Ray and its electrified AWD capability is always up for a challenge, whether it's snow, rain, mud or ice. But this sophisticated supercar wasn't created to take on Mother Nature alone. With technology inspired by the C8.R race car and Le Mans prototypes, plus standard carbon ceramic brakes, it's made to take on the greatest cars in the world.

The power within

With the addition of an electric drive unit on the front axle, you can expect incredible acceleration as well as impressive horsepower and torque on both road and track.

CORVETTE E-RAY LT2 V8 ENGINE

With 495 horsepower and 470 lb.-ft. of torque, this 6.2L small block powerhouse is designed to thrill on every drive, on both road and track, and contributes to an overall 655 horsepower. It features eight equal-length intake runners of 210 mm to maximize torque and airflow. A dry-sump oil scavenge system uses three pumps to ensure oil quality and flow to critical areas during high g-force cornering and acceleration.

Stealth Mode

Leave the neighborhood quietly with Stealth Mode, which utilizes the electric drive unit to let you drive short distances at limited speeds using electric power to the front axles.

ZER Performance Package

When you're ready for even higher performance, you need the available ZER Performance Package. It comes standard with high-performance Michelin[®] Pilot[®] Sport 4 S ZP summer-only tires as well as chassis tuning and other performance enhancements.

DESIGN - The face of change - Exterior

E-Ray features a host of functional design elements, adding wider fenders, quarter panels and fascias. The result is a sleek, sculpted presence with a number of aerodynamic and performance benefits. Standard ground effects and spoiler contribute further to its aerodynamic prowess, while matching body-color accents provide a refined look.

TECHNOLOGY: Tech for the grandest of tours

With a standard Head-Up Display, you can keep your eyes on the road ahead. Or track, because E-Ray can also be equipped with an available Performance Data Recorder that can help you become a better driver. And you'll be entertained on your longer drives with standard wireless Apple CarPlay® and wireless Android Auto™ compatibility, as well as an available 14-speaker Bose Performance Series system.

Your Corvette command center

New driver information screens keep you in the know about the vehicle's battery power in addition to a host of performance parameters. The all-new E-Ray App, conveniently located on the center screen, gives you a quick look at even more performance data, RWD vs. FWD power and vehicle information.

Electrify your creative side.

With all-new stripes, exterior accents, wheels and more, see all the ways you can customize E-Ray to your exact specifications.
